Locals and Personals

Are you shifting, brother, shifting?

See Hurricane Hutch, you'll like him much.

Ralph Hester of Greenville was here last Sunday.

Mrs. D. B. Finney has a very fine patch of Irish potatoes, they being now in bloom.

Miss Viola McCrary of Travelers Rest is visiting her sister, Mrs. Furman Waldrop.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lewis were visitors at the home of Mr. B. Lewis last week-end.

D. B. Finney left last week for Flint, Mich., where he expects to play professional baseball this season.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Young and Mrs. P. J. Gregory of Greenville spent last week-end with Mrs. Claude Allgood.

Folger, Hendricks & Co. have something to say this week about the well known Griffin clothing. Read their ad.

Mr. Jno. Acker and family of Easley have bought the Ramsey house on Ann street and are moving into it. He is a first class plumber.

The Easter services at Grace M. E. church were very impressive on last Sunday. The floral decorations of green and white were beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Robinson and children of Keowee visited Mrs. Wyatt of Easley and Mrs. Arthur Gravelly of this place last Sunday.

Mrs. James P. Carey returned from a three months stay in Daytona, Florida, last Monday. Her stay has been both pleasant and beneficial.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will hold a quarterly meeting at this place on the afternoon of the fifth Sunday, beginning at three o'clock. All the ladies of the surrounding community are invited to attend.

Mr. C. D. Carden of Newnan, Ga., who represents the R. D. Cole Co., was a visitor at the home of Miss Fannie Finney a few days last week.

Mrs. Emma Major is visiting her daughter, Miss Patti Major at Beaufort, S. C. She is enjoying the delightful strawberries and vegetables which grow there in such profusion.

The Piedmont Presbyterian meets at Piedmont on the 27th and 28th of this month. Mrs. Wayne Mauldin and Miss Frances Bruce were elected delegates from the local Presbyterian auxiliary.

An advertisement which will prove of unusual interest to ladies if that of Edwards & Darsey this week. Every lady has read about the now famous Deltor which is used in connection with Butterick patterns. This new feature is explained in the ad. Read it.

Misses Mary and Nannie Morris of Pickens left Monday for Columbia to attend Palmfesta. Miss Nannie will represent Pickens county as one of the Palmfesta queens, and judging from pictures of the young ladies published in the daily papers of the state Pickens county is furnishing the prettiest queen of the lot.

OLD SOLDIERS' REUNION

Annual Event June 3—Col. J. Rion McKissick Speaker.

The local chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy is going steadily forward with its plans for the annual reunion of Confederate veterans of Pickens county which is held each year in Pickens on June 3—Jefferson Davis' birthday.

The chapter considers itself most fortunate in that Col. Rion McKissick, editor of the Greenville Daily Piedmont, has consented to make the address of the occasion. Mr. McKissick is the son of a gallant Confederate soldier and is a gifted writer and speaker.

The whole county looks forward to this day when it does honor to the heroes of the 60's.

Miss Frances McFall entertained twelve of her friends on last Saturday afternoon at a most delightful Easter party. Several interesting contests were had, among them two in which prizes were given, Misses Ellner Mauldin and Laura Craig were winners. The games were played on the beautiful lawn, and most delicious block cream and pound cake was served in the beautifully decorated dining room.

Dorothy Gish in

"THE GHOST IN THE GARRETT"

This is a broad burlesque comedy and many hilarious scenes occur in the deserted house where the crooks have their headquarters. The star finds them there and by pretending to be a ghost she frightens them away and succeeds in getting back the stolen goods. A bull dog plays a very important part and made considerable comment.

"The Ghost in the Garrett" is made for the blues. If you want to laugh this will do the trick. One of the best pictures Miss Gish ever appeared in. It depends on ghosts for its laugh getting situations, but it is wholesome and one the entire family can come to see for a good time.

Thursday, April 20th.....

Marie Prevost in

"A PARISIAN SCANDAL"

Another one of those comedy dramas in which Miss Prevost is so well suited. A six-cylinder French conception of a dazzling American girl who made all Paris set up and take notice. A snappy comedy drama that you will enjoy.

Lovely new fabrics for the fashionable one-piece dress

SILKS, crêpes, serges, prints—
all the fashionable fabrics for this season.

Delicately colored cotton voiles
and fine cotton crêpes. Printed silk crêpes, too, in summer colors.
All are charming—and very fashionable for the simple one-piece frocks which demand so much from the materials of which they are made.

We are showing unusual assortments of these lovely fabrics and the new homespun, ginghams and organdies. Before buying materials for your new frocks come in and see our showing of the spring novelties.

You can duplicate the dress
shown here—just as an expert would. With pictures and instructions which apply specifically to the garment you are working on,
the Deltor makes successful home
sewing possible for inexperienced sewers. Even experienced dressmakers are amazed at their greater

success—at the time and material
they save when they follow the Deltor, which comes with every
new Butterick Pattern.

The Deltor shows you with pictures and instructions just how to cut, put together and finish your garment like a professional.

Come in and see the new Butter-
ick Patterns and let us tell you about the Deltor which enables
you to make your clothes expertly.

Design No. 3631. Very fashionable is this charming frock developed in silk crêpe or one of the interesting new cottons. It depends on the long, wide sleeves
for much of its distinction.
Sleeves such as these add a note of youth to the whole frock. The fabric trimming, too, is very fashionable.

Make yourself a dress exactly like this one. You can duplicate even its look of Paris! With Butterick pattern No. 3631 and its Deltor you can do it easily, simply. And you are sure of success, for the Deltor guides you like a professional dressmaker.
